Registration:

To ensure a smooth start to our clinic, we kindly request that you arrive at 11:30 to complete your registration at Miller.

Academic Advisor talk:

Our esteemed field hockey academic advisor, Brooke Taylor, will be hosting a talk specifically tailored for parents like yourselves. The session will delve into the academic landscape at Wake Forest University, shedding light on the various services and support systems available to our student athletes as they navigate their studies.

The talk is scheduled to take place at 12:10pm in the Rovere room. There will be an opportunity for you to ask any question you may have regarding academics, student support, or any other related concerns.

Medical Forms:

For the safety of all participants, it is essential that you complete the necessary medical forms. These forms can be found on the Jen Averill Hockey Clinic website or by clicking on this link. Please make sure to have them ready when you arrive.

Pinnies:

We will be issuing pinnies to all participants, so be sure to grab yours when you arrive. These will help us organize teams and make the most of our clinic.

Jen Averill's Fall Hockey Clinic promises to be an unforgettable experience filled with skill-building, camaraderie, and a love for the game of field hockey. We're committed to providing a supportive and engaging environment for athletes of all levels.

Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to reach out to us at coetzer@wfu.edu. Our dedicated staff is here to assist you.

We can't wait to see you on February 25th, at Kentner Stadium. Get ready for an exciting day of field hockey!

Regards,

Roxy Coetzee-Turner
